The Navy League of Canada has a presence in over 220 communities and supports approximately 10,000 young Canadians in the largest maritime-themed youth programs in the country: Royal Canadian Sea Cadets and Navy League Cadets.

Our programming is made possible by the support of over 6,000 dedicated volunteers who contribute at all levels of our organization, from local activities all the way to national initiatives. Who are these members?

Most of our volunteers are friends and family of current cadets, or past cadets themselves who want to share what they learned.

NAVY LEAGUE OF CANADA

The Navy League of Canada is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting maritime affairs, fostering leadership, and providing youth programs across Canada.

THE NAVY LEAGUE OF CANADA

NAVY LEAGUE OF CANADA YOUTH PROGRAMS

The Navy League of Canada's youth program offers young Canadians, aged 9 to 18, opportunities to develop leadership, citizenship, and physical fitness through structured naval-themed activities and training.

This program emphasizes teamwork, discipline, and community service, providing a supportive environment for personal growth and skill development.

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

The Navy League of Canada not only offers exciting opportunities for youth, but we also have a wide range of volunteer opportunities for adults. Whether you enjoy teaching and working with youth, or would like to develop your management skills as a member of your local Branch.

The Navy League of Canada is happy to welcome you to our community and find a suitable volunteer position for you.

NAVY LEAGUE OFFICERS

Our Navy League Officer program is suitable for any adult looking for progressive professional development opportunities. Navy League Officers are not members of the Canadian Armed Forces, and are deeply connected to their community, and passionate about giving youth a better start at life.

Navy League Officers commit to training with cadets on a weekly basis. They are often the ones running the training program themselves, administering the cadets in their charge, and liaising with families to ensure the success of the children. As they gain experience and training of their own, Navy League Officers have the opportunity to progress through the ranking system, continue learning new skills, and contribute to the training aspect of the cadet program.

BRANCH AND DIVISION MEMBERS

If volunteering in a supporting capacity is of interest to you, reach out to the local Branch affiliated with your Corps. There are a variety of positions to be filled on the Boards, ranging from occasional to regular contributions, each requiring a different set of skills.

Alternatively, if working with one specific Branch is not enough, ask about being put in touch with your regional Division. Our Divisions are responsible for supporting a larger group of our membership, and are always looking for more volunteers to join the Board, assist other members in their development, and influence the direction of the program in your area.
